

Runyon Sports Complex

2025 Behavior Violation Policy

Revised 01.01.2021

Removal by game official: In the event a coach or player is removed from a game by a game official; said coach/player will be suspended for the following 2 scheduled games (minimum).

Removal requiring assistance of Field Directors and/or Security: In the event a coach or player is removed from a game by a game official and requires support of a Field Director or Security, said coach/player will be suspended for the following 4 games (minimum) and may be removed from the league.

Spectator removal: Head coaches are responsible for the behavior of spectators at their scheduled games. In the event a spectator is removed by a Field Director or Security, said spectator will be suspended from the complex for a minimum of 4 games and depending on severity of the incident the head coach may also be suspended.

Note: The duration and severity of suspension within these guidelines is at the discretion of the RSC General Manager upon recommendation of Field Directors and Game Officials. Suspension beyond the 2-4 game minimums require approval and recommendation of the Runyon Board of Directors. Suspension may have a duration of up to the remainder of the current season and additional calendar years or more depending on the severity of the violation and in the event of repeat violations.
